Joe Alt with the No. 5 pick and signings of Edwards and Dobbins on a shoestring budget telegraph where the philosophical shift is headed. QB Justin Herbert must acclimate to yet another playbook and an unproven receiving corps. But he seems excited about second-round WR Ladd McConkey ... and should be really thrilled by Harbaugh's propensity to get the best out of his slingers.

Los Angeles Rams: B-

They compensated about as well as possible following the retirement of Aaron Donald – almost inarguably the league's most dominant non-quarterback over the past decade – an effort highlighted by the draft acquisitions of Florida State teammates Jared Verse and Braden Fiske to replenish the defensive line. GM Les Snead also redistributed nearly $100 million over the next three years so Gs Jonah Jackson and Kevin Dotson can safeguard Matthew Stafford ... though the quarterback would like some sugar added to what's become a below-market contract. An increasingly young defense must adapt without Donald after also losing Morris, who did an exceptional job coordinating it in 2023.

Miami Dolphins: C

They let a pair of $100+ million players (Wilkins and Hunt) go during free agency, ostensibly to keep WR Jaylen Waddle and QB Tua Tagovailoa in the fold over the long run ... even though Tagovailoa has yet to get his bag. GM Chris Grier also had to heavily resource the pass rush (vets Calais Campbell and Shaq Barrett, rookies Chop Robinson and Mohamed Kamara) in an attempt to offset the loss of Wilkins and account for the ongoing rehabilitation of starting OLBs Bradley Chubb (ACL) and Jaelan Phillips (Achilles) for a defense that was also significantly shuffled elsewhere. And while OBJ and fourth-round RB Jaylen Wright boost the offense's already ridiculous speed quotient, questions remain on the O-line. Quite a mixed bag, especially if Tua's unresolved finances linger.

Minnesota Vikings: B

After Cousins' departure, they correctly embraced a long-term view – which included getting younger behind center (free agent Sam Darnold, first-rounder J.J. McCarthy) and at pass rusher (free agent Jonathan Greenard, first-rounder Dallas Turner). Bit of a coup that GM Kwesi Adofo-Mensah got to select twice in Round 1 after rampant speculation he'd have to bundle his picks for Cousins' successor. And the team is also secure at another key spot after locking WR Justin Jefferson into his record four-year extension. Much will surely hinge on McCarthy's progress but hard to fault the process here.

New England Patriots: B

A team that just suffered double-digit losses for the first time in nearly a quarter-century is pretty much running it back ... with two exceptions of some note. Six-time Super Bowl winner Belichick (and much of his often suffocating style) is gone, replaced by former defensive captain Jerod Mayo. Mac Jones has also left the building, No. 3 overall pick Drake Maye now in line to step into Tom Brady's unfillable shoes ... though former TB12 backup Jacoby Brissett has returned to ease Maye's adaptation from North Carolina to the NFL. Even if the Pats don't escape last place, they should at least bring a refreshing novelty.

Russell Wilson (3) and Justin Fields (2) joined the Steelers this offseason.

JOE SARGENT/GETTY IMAGES

New Orleans Saints: C-

A team that's gone 25-26 since QB Drew Brees' retirement following the 2020 season doesn't appear sufficiently improved. DE Chase Young was the only notable free agent addition. Rookie OT Taliese Fuaga and CB Kool-Aid McKinstry should contribute immediately. Otherwise, New Orleans did its annual salary cap gymnastics ... yet apparently still needs to stick the landing as it pertains to RB Alvin Kamara's deal. Though new OC Clint Kubiak could be an X-factor, hardly feels like enough has occurred for the Saints to reclaim NFC South supremacy.

New York Giants: B-

Given the parameters of his contract, probably just as well to ride (for now) with enigmatic QB Daniel Jones and use the sixth pick of the draft on a potential superstar like WR Malik Nabers, who could quickly become the face of this franchise – particularly with RB Saquon Barkley gone to Philadelphia. The acquisition and extension of Burns could be a heist ... and might have to be given the potential this offense, which ranked 29th in 2023 and just lost TE Darren Waller to retirement, could continue to sputter.

New York Jets: B+

QB Aaron Rodgers' mysterious (and probably overblown) absence from minicamp was literally a distraction for what's been an otherwise mostly quiet and encouraging spring. GM Joe Douglas substantially upgraded Rodgers' weapons and protection and seems to have engineered an offense capable of supplementing an already elite defense. The team is rolling the dice on high-ceiling but injury-prone veterans like LT Tyrion Smith and WR Mike Williams. And curious decision to trade for disgruntled OLB Haason Reddick, 29, rather than resign younger counterpart Bryce Huff – but Douglas' reluctance to pay either is sensible inasmuch as the team is a year away from mulling a series of expensive extensions for its vaunted 2022 draft class (CB Sauce Gardner, WR Garrett Wilson, OLB Jermaine Johnson II and RB Breece Hall).

Seattle Seahawks: B-

If they're not rebuilding, they're at least resetting on the fly – and Macdonald comes highly recommended for his tactical and organizational abilities. Should be fascinating to see how it plays out with new philosophies on both sides of the ball, QB Geno Smith still apparently in a bridge-to-nowhere role, and GM John Schneider issuing some short-term free agent deals while taking a $31 million dead-cap hit at safety to purge Jamal Adams and Quandre Diggs. First-round DT Byron Murphy II should be a steal (and beast) alongside extended line mate Leonard Williams, but this roster still seems to have several significant holes.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers: B

An organization that hasn't missed the postseason since 2019 prioritized continuity – often an underrated bellwether for NFL success – in March by getting new deals done for QB Baker Mayfield, WR Mike Evans and LB Lavonte David, while All-Pro S Antoine Winfield Jr. got his payday in May. A struggling secondary was tweaked. Mayfield is already raving about first-round C Graham Barton. However, the key to making another deep playoff run could be how well the offense adapts to new coordinator Liam Coen, who's split the past few seasons working for McVay and the University of Kentucky.

Tennessee Titans: C+

Callahan (and second-year QB Will Levis) will pretty much need to hit the ground running given GM Ran Carthon's aggressive rebuild ... which was apparently at odds with respected (and departed) head coach Mike Vrabel. Also leaving were Henry and QB Ryan Tannehill, replaced by a veteran intake that includes Ridley, Sneed, Pollard and Boyd. ((And it could be argued Carthon overpaid and overcommitted for veterans like C Lloyd Cushenberry (4 years, $50 million), CB Chidobe Awuzie (3 years, $36 million) and LB Kenneth Murray (2 years, $15.5 million) among others.)) First-round OT JC Latham seems to address a glaring need but must prove he can handle Levis' blind side, while second-round DT T'Vondre Sweat could be a reach personally and professionally. Levis' progress will likely be the canary in the coal mine as to whether this team is relevant anew ... or immediately over its skis while Callahan is trying to learn the ropes.

Washington Commanders: A

A long aimless franchise finally seems liberated with a course charted under new GM Adam Peters and Quinn, a second-time head coach. QB Jayden Daniels, the second pick of the draft, could finally bring star power and stability to his position a decade after the Robert Griffin III era derailed prematurely. Daniels also headlines a draft class long on leadership – Peters picked seven players who were team captains in college – and, presumably, talent. And while free agency didn't necessarily bring any long-term cornerstones, the Commanders added veterans who can help reset the culture and/or are familiar with Quinn, who welcomes four former Cowboys and respected elders like LB Bobby Wagner and RB Austin Ekeler. Yet Peters also didn't mortgage future cap flexibility, a sin this organization has so often been guilty of. The Commanders may not yet be a playoff team, but they are one exuding something local fans haven't had in years – hope.

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY FINAL PROGRAMMATIC ENVIRONMENTAL ASSESSMENT FOR REDUCTION AND MANAGEMENT OF FUEL LOADS ON DEPARTMENT OF AIR FORCE-MANAGED LANDS The Department of the Air Force (DAF) prepared a Final Programmatic Environmental Assessment (PEA) under the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) to evaluate the potential environmental impacts associated with the implementation of fuels reduction and management activities on DAF-managed lands. The reduction and management of fuel loads would allow for mission sustainability and build ecosystem resiliency that promotes both biodiversity and sustainability, resulting in the protection of natural and cultural resources. The Final PEA includes the evaluation of one Proposed Action and the No Action alternative. The Proposed Action would implement a full suite of fuels management tools consisting of prescribed burns, mechanical treatment, hand treatment, chemical treatment, and targeted grazing, as deemed appropriate on DAF-managed lands. These treatment methods comply with applicable federal regulations, state regulations, and permitting requirements. Implementation of the Proposed Action would ensure that a programmatic approach to fuels reduction and management is used to optimize both mission protection and ecosystem management. Once a decision is made to implement fuel reduction and management activities at a particular installation, the DAF would conduct follow-on site-specific environmental analysis tiering from the PEA document using the information provided in the analysis. Under the No Action Alternative, the DAF would continue conducting site-specific environmental analysis for fuels reduction and management activities. Existing fuel loads could increase the threat of large-scale wildfires, reducing mission capabilities, impairing aircrew readiness, compromising ecosystem resilience, and potentially resulting in a loss of critical resources. Higgins must wait till '25 to snag big payday

Nate Davis
USA TODAY

The NFL's deadline for players bearing the franchise tag to sign multiyear contracts expired Monday, and everybody got filthy rich this year – from a football perspective anyway – save the Cincinnati Bengals' Tee Higgins.

As expected, the Bengals did not reach a long-term agreement with the wide receiver. That means Higgins heads into his fifth pro campaign scheduled to make $21.8 million, the value of the one-year tender for franchised wideouts this year.

What happens next? The way the receiver market is evolving, he stands to cash in handsomely in 2025, provided he takes care of business in 2024.

Here's what to know moving forward:

When can he sign next contract?

Higgins is eligible to sign an extension with the Bengals following the 2024 season, but it's far more likely he'll hit the free agent market next March – unless Cincinnati tags him a second time, which seems highly unlikely.

Will he hold out of training camp?

Also unlikely. He signed his one-year tender last month after the Bengals completed mandatory minicamp. Prior to signing the tender, Higgins technically wasn't under contract – many franchised players wait deep into the summer before accepting the tender – and wasn't obliged to show up for any team activities. But now he's back in the fold and would be subject to mandatory fines if he skips any portion of training camp. The veterans report July 23.

Why didn't Bengals extend him?

Cincinnati certainly likes the Jefferson product, who has developed into one of the league's top No. 2 targets and is popular within the locker room and Queen City community.

In 58 games over four seasons with the Bengals, Tee Higgins has caught 257 passes for 3,684 yards and 24 TDs. KAREEM ELGAZZAR/THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER

“(W)e feel like we’re a better team with him,” Bengals director of player personnel Duke Tobin said in February at the annual scouting combine following the team's decision to tag Higgins. “The reason we franchised him is because we would like to have him. He fits us perfectly.”

But Tobin also told the Bengals website in January: “Everyone on our team would like Tee Higgins back. There’s a pie, and there are things we can do and can’t do because of it.”

And there’s the rub.

Cincinnati signed quarterback Joe Burrow to a five-year, $275 million extension last September – it’s average annual payout of $55 million is the NFL's highest (recently tied by quarterback Trevor Lawrence's new pact with the Jaguars). However the Bengals are now officially in the window to lock up Pro Bowl WR1 Ja'Marr Chase, who's likely to command a deal close to or exceeding the four-year, $140 million windfall recently landed by Minnesota Vikings superstar WR Justin Jefferson, Chase's former teammate at LSU. And Tobin has already signaled Chase is “in our long-term plans. He’s a high-level player in this league. And we want to keep those kinds of players on our team.”

That apparently doesn't leave a bigger piece of pie for Higgins.

What kind of market should Higgins expect in 2025?

Jefferson's deal reset the wide receiver pay scale, and it's $35 million per year value is the highest in league history among non-quarterbacks.

Higgins has traditionally been more of a Robin type (to Chase's Batman).

Injuries to himself and Burrow prevented Higgins from realizing a third consecutive 1,000-yard effort in 2023, but the departure of longtime Bengals fixture Tyler Boyd to the Tennessee Titans could mean a larger target share for Higgins in 2024 given Cincinnati has no established No. 3 option.

Given the steadily expanding state of the salary cap, it seems reasonable to expect Higgins could command something north of $25 million per season starting in 2025 – and maybe more if he can convince an outside suitor he's ready for a WR1 role.

Which other players received franchise tag in 2024?

Baltimore Ravens DT Justin Madubuike: Eventually signed four-year, $98 million extension.

New York Giants OLB Brian Burns: Originally franchised by the Carolina Panthers, he later was traded to the Giants and signed a five-year, $141M contract.

Chicago Bears CB Jaylon Johnson: Signed four-year, $76M extension.

Indianapolis Colts WR Michael Pittman Jr.: Signed three-year, $70M extension.

Jacksonville Jaguars OLB Josh Hines-Allen: 5-year, $141.3M contract.

Tennessee Titans CB LJarius Sneed: Originally franchised by the Kansas City Chiefs, he was traded to the Titans and signed a four-year, $76.4M contract.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers FS Antoine Winfield: Signed four-year, $84.1M extension.

New England Patriots S Kyle Dugger (transition tag): Signed four-year, $58M extension.

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

In re: TAKEOFF TECHNOLOGIES, INC., et al., Chapter 11 Case No. 24-11106 (CTG) Debtors. (Jointly Administered)

NOTICE OF SALE, BIDDING PROCEDURES, AUCTION, AND SALE HEARING

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, on June 6, 2024, the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") in these chapter 11 cases, filed with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Court") a motion (Docket No. 62) (the "Motion") for the entry of an order (the "Bid Procedures Order") (i) approving (a) the Bidding Procedures, substantially in the form attached to the Bid Procedures Order as Exhibit 1; (b) authorizing the Debtors to designate one or more stalking horse bidders (the "Stalking Horse Bidders"); (c) setting the deadline for potential bidders to submit a proposal to purchase the Assets (the "Bid Deadline"), authorizing and scheduling an auction (the "Auction"), and authorizing and scheduling hearings with respect to the approval of a proposed sale transaction (the applicable "Sale Hearing"); (d) authorizing and approving the form and manner of the Sale Notice; (e) authorizing and approving the Notice of Assumption, Assignment, and Sale regarding the Debtors' potential assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts and of the Debtors' calculation of the amount necessary to cure any defaults thereunder (the "Sale Costs"); and (f) authorizing and approving procedures for the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts and the determination of Cure Costs with respect thereto (collectively, the "Assumption and Assignment Procedures"); (ii) authorizing the sale of all or substantially all of the Debtors' assets (the "Assets"), free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, the "Sale Transactions"); and (iii) granting related relief.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that, on July 12, 2024, the Court entered the Bid Procedures Order authorizing the Debtors to solicit bids for the purchase of the Assets and, if one or more Qualified Bids are received within the requirements and timeframe specified by the Bidding Procedures, conduct the Auction to select the Successful Bidder. If held, the Auction will be governed by the Bidding Procedures approved pursuant to the Bid Procedures Order.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE of the following important dates and deadlines in connection with the Sale Process:

- Stalking Horse Deadline: Any party or entity wishing to serve as a Stalking Horse Bidder for the Assets or any subset thereof must be designated as a Stalking Horse Bidder no later than the Stalking Horse Deadline, July 30, 2024, at 4:00 p.m. (ET).
- Bid Deadline: Any person or entity interested in participating in the Auction must submit a Qualified Bid on or before August 8, 2024, at 4:00 p.m. (ET) (the "Bid Deadline").
- Auction: An Auction, if necessary, has been scheduled for August 12, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. (ET) to be held at a location to be determined no later than two (2) business days before the Auction or via zoom.
- Sale Objection Deadline: Objections to the Sale Transactions, including any objection to the sale of the Assets free and clear of all claims and interests, must be (i) filed in accordance with the Bidding Procedures and (ii) filed with the Court by no later than July 26, 2024, at 4:00 p.m. (ET) (the "Sale Objection Deadline").
- Contract Objection Deadline: Objections to any proposed assumption or assignment of an Assigned Contract must be (i) filed in accordance with the Bidding Procedures and (ii) filed with the Court by no later than August 1, 2024, at 4:00 p.m. (ET) (the "Contract Objection Deadline").
- Sale Hearing: A hearing to approve the Sale Transactions shall be held before the Court before the Honorable Craig T. Goldblatt on August 14, 2024, at 3:00 p.m. (ET) (the "Sale Hearing").

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the Debtors may assign to a Successful Bidder, pursuant to an asset purchase agreement, certain contracts, agreements, leases and other assets, including assets constituting real property interests (including all fee surface interests in land, surface leases, easements, rights of way, servitudes, licenses, franchises, road, railroad, and other surface use permits or agreements), free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances (other than certain permitted post-closing liabilities, liens, or as otherwise provided in the applicable purchase agreement). Subject to approval by the Court, if any party objects to such assignment, including any objection based on any alleged approval or consent right or anti-assignment provision contained in or applicable to any contract, lease, or other agreement (a "Consent Right"), then such party must file with the Court an objection identifying (i) the contract(s), lease(s), or other agreement(s), (ii) the basis for objecting to the assignment of such contract(s), lease(s), or other agreement(s), and (iii) all supporting documentation (each, an "Assignment Objection"), no later than the Contract Objection Deadline.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT IF A PARTY FILES AN ASSIGNMENT OBJECTION IN A MANNER THAT IS CONSISTENT WITH THE REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH ABOVE, AND THE PARTIES ARE UNABLE TO CONSENSUALLY RESOLVE THE DISPUTE PRIOR TO THE SALE HEARING, SUCH OBJECTION WILL BE HEARD BY THE COURT AT THE SALE HEARING OR AT A TIME TO BE DETERMINED BY THE DEBTORS AND THE OBJECTING PARTY.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT any person failing to timely file an Assignment Objection will be (i) forever barred from objecting to the transfer, sale, assumption, and/or assignment of the Debtors' right, title, and interest in, to and under the assets to be sold, assumed, and/or assigned in connection with a Sale Transaction, free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances, including Consent Rights (other than certain permitted liens), and (ii) deemed to consent to and approve the transfer, sale, and assumption and/or assignment of the Debtors' right, title, and interest in, to and under such assets free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances, including Consent Rights (other than certain permitted liens), regardless of whether such consent must be in writing pursuant to the terms of any contract, lease, or other agreement.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that if any person files an Assignment Objection in accordance herewith, the Debtors and other parties in interest will have the opportunity to object to any alleged rights asserted by such person by filing a response to the Assignment Objection (and serving such response on the objecting party) at any time prior to the Sale Hearing. Upon the filing of such response to such objection, any rights asserted will be deemed to be disputed and the Debtors will be entitled to assert that a bona fide dispute exists as to such rights asserted. Nothing herein will be deemed a waiver of any rights of the Debtors or any other parties in interest to contest any rights asserted by any person in such objections, and all such rights of the Debtors are expressly preserved.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that any party interested in submitting a bid should contact Huron Transaction Advisory LLC (Attn: Joe Polancich (jpolancich@hcg.com) and Mitchener Turnipseed (mturipseed@hcg.com)). Copies of the Motion, the Bid Procedures Order, and the Bidding Procedures may be obtained free of charge at the website dedicated to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases maintained by their claims and noticing agent and administrative advisor, Kroll Restructuring Administration LLC, located at <https://cases.kroll.com/takeoff>.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that, except as otherwise set forth in the Bidding Procedures, the Debtors reserve the right, in their reasonable business judgment, in a manner consistent with their fiduciary duties and applicable law, and (except to the extent set forth herein) in consultation with the Consultation Parties, to modify the Bidding Procedures; waive terms and conditions set forth herein with respect to all Potential Bidders; extend the deadlines set forth herein; announce at the Auction modified or additional procedures for conducting the Auction; alter the assumptions set forth herein; provided, that the Debtors shall not be authorized to make material modifications to the Bidding Procedures with respect to the Assets without further order of the Court. The Debtors may provide reasonable accommodations to any Potential Bidder(s) with respect to such terms, conditions, and deadlines of the bidding and Auction process to promote further bids on the Debtors' assets, in each case, to the extent not materially inconsistent with the Bidding Procedures and the Bid Procedures Order, as applicable. All parties reserve their rights to seek Court relief with regard to the Auction, the Bidding Procedures, and any related items (including, if necessary, to seek an extension of the Bid Deadline). In addition, the Debtors reserve their right to cancel the Bidding Procedures and the Auction with respect to any of the Assets if the Debtors determine, in their reasonable business judgment, in a manner consistent with their fiduciary duties and applicable law, and in consultation with the Consultation Parties, to proceed with a private sale of such assets.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT FAILURE TO ABIDE BY THE BIDDING PROCEDURES, THE BID PROCEDURES ORDER, OR ANY OTHER ORDER OF THE COURT IN THESE CHAPTER 11 CASES MAY RESULT IN THE REJECTION OF YOUR BID.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT THE FAILURE OF ANY PERSON OR ENTITY TO FILE AN OBJECTION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE BID PROCEDURES ORDER BY THE SALE OBJECTION DEADLINE OR THE CONTRACT OBJECTION DEADLINE, AS APPLICABLE, SHALL FOREVER BAR SUCH PERSON OR ENTITY FROM ASSERTING ANY OBJECTION TO THE MOTION, THE ORDER APPROVING THE SALE TRANSACTIONS, THE PROPOSED SALE TRANSACTIONS, OR ANY OTHER AGREEMENT EXECUTED BY THE DEBTORS AND A SUCCESSFUL BIDDER AT THE AUCTION.
