Include details, such as whether training is standard or optional, who provides training, and any costs that apply.	Phazzer LLC offers Senior Instructor, Instructor and user training. Once the written portion is complete and turned in, our Master trainer will contact the student to schedule the practical. The practical can be completed over Zoom or in person which will be based on the availability of the user and the trainer. If the trainer has to travel for in person training, there may be costs involved. The cost will be determined at that time.
