MLB puts Dodgers ace Urias on administrative leave after arrest

Bob Nightengale USA TODAY

Los Angeles Dodgers ace Julio Urias was placed on administrative leave Wednesday by Major League Baseball while it investigates his arrest on felony domestic violence charges on Sunday night, likely ending his regular season.

Urias, who did not accompany the Dodgers on their road trip, could be on MLB's administrative leave for two weeks before the players association grants approval for an extension. The restricted list is originally for seven days, and MLB can ask the union for an additional seven days which "consent shall not be unreasonably withheld." If MLB's investigation is not completed, he could be placed on the restricted list, subject to the union's approval.

"I was shocked, everyone was," Dodgers manager Dave Roberts told reporters. "It is just an extremely unfortunate circumstance for everyone. Right now, it's essentially in the authorities' and Major League Baseball's court, to do their due diligence. Obviously Julio is not here with us, and for us, we're just sitting and waiting as the process continues until we know more."

Urias, 27, who was expected to be among the most sought-after free agents in baseball this winter, perhaps commanding close to $200 million, has a court date of Sept. 27.

He was arrested by Exposition Park officers after a Major League Soccer game involving Inter Miami vs. LAFC on Sunday night at BMO Stadium when at least one witness alerted police of a potential domestic battery involving Urias' wife. He was arrested on a charge of "corporal injury on a spouse." He was released from the LAPD Metropolitan Detention Center on $50,000 bail.

If convicted, he can be punished with imprisonment in the state prison for up to four years, according to Penal Code 273.5, or in a county jail for no more than a year, or fined up to $6,000.

The Department of Public Safety, the arresting agency, has yet to provide details of the arrest.

The Dodgers announced Wednesday that they would be replacing Urías' bobblehead night at Dodger Stadium, which had been scheduled for Sept. 21.

Urias also was arrested on suspicion of domestic battery in 2019 when witnesses saw him push a woman in a parking lot, but he was not charged. He received a 20-game suspension under MLB's domestic violence policy.

Urias, 27, had been one of the best starters in baseball over the past three years. He has struggled this season, going 11-8 with a career-high 4.60 ERA.

49ers' Nick Bosa new highest-paid defender

Tyler Dragon USA TODAY

Negotiations took longer than anticipated, but Nick Bosa and the San Francisco 49ers have a deal.

They agreed to a five-year, $170 million extension with $122.5 million guaranteed, making the pass rusher the highest-paid defensive player in NFL history, a person with knowledge of the deal told USA TODAY Sports on Wednesday. The person spoke on condition of anonymity because they aren't authorized to discuss financial terms of the agreement.

ESPN was first to report the news.

The 25-year-old, who passes Los Angeles Rams tackle Aaron Donald as the top-paid defender, had been holding out. Entering the final year of his rookie deal, Bosa was due to make $17.9 million. He registered an NFL-high 18.5 sacks, 51 tackles, two forced fumbles and 48 QB hits as he helped the 49ers become the league's No. 1-ranked defense in 2022. His performance earned him the NFL Defensive Player of the Year award as well as his first All-Pro recognition.

Alcantara likely out for rest of '23

Gabe Lacques USA TODAY

Sandy Alcantara, the reigning National League Cy Young Award winner and ace of the playoff-contending Miami Marlins, will go on the 15-day injured list with a right forearm flexor strain, an injury that will likely end his sea-

The Marlins announced the injury Wednesday, three days after Alcantara pitched eight innings and earned his seventh win of the season in a 6-4 victory over the Washington Nationals. The club also said slugger Jorge Soler is going on the IL with an oblique strain. Alcantara leads the NL in complete games with three, but his ERA soared to 4.14 and his adjusted ERA tumbled from 176 to a near league average 105.

Going into Wednesday, the Marlins had 24 games left and were a half-game behind Cincinnati for the final NL wild-card spot in a crowded race.
