Welcome to the Sourcewell Procurement Portal

This site allows prospective vendors to create a Sourcewell Procurement Portal account. Prospective vendors who select one or more commodity codes for the equipment, products, and services they offer will receive system-generated notifications by email of new Sourcewell opportunities matching their commodity code selection.

Public solicitations are posted on this website.

Prospective vendors are solely responsible for ensuring their account information is kept current.

For step by step instructions on how to create an Account please refer to the Create Account Guide \(https://stg.sourcewell-mn.gov/sites/default/files/2019-03-19/Sourcewell_ProPortal_Vendor_Guide.pdf\)

Sourcewell does NOT charge a fee for creating or maintaining a Sourcewell Procurement Portal account or for accessing Sourcewell solicitation documents.

Procurement Support:

If you have questions about a specific opportunity, please submit your inquiry through the Question and Answer feature in the Sourcewell Procurement Portal. For general procurement inquiries please contact the Sourcewell Procurement Team, by email rfp@sourcewell-mn.gov (<mailto:rfp@sourcewell-mn.gov>) or phone 877-585-9705.

Public Notices in this newspaper help me participate in my community.

State law requires government entities at all levels, from water districts to city councils and school boards, to place notices of many of their activities in a legal newspaper. This is a legal newspaper. I subscribe to it, and I read it.

I read legal notices to find out when those people will meet, what rules and laws they're talking about and when I can offer my two cents worth.

Would a similar notice posted somewhere on the internet alert me to what's going on around here?

The answer to that is obvious. No, it would not.

Ward.

"You do feel the pressure," Maassen said. "You're not used to having these kind of eyeballs during dual matches. Yes, you have parents there, but there were a lot of people here today. It's just a whole different ballgame."

"I could feel it before it was happening," Roling admitted.

Ward held an 8-5 lead in the tiebreaker, taking over the serve with just two points away from a win. And there wasn't much time for Roling to regroup and take a beat.

"It's all mental," she said. "You've got to keep your head in it."

Roling won each of the next four points, taking a 9-8 lead for match point.

Ward won the next point to tie it at 9, then Roling took the following point for her second match point. Taking over the serve, Roling won the next point on an unforced error to win the tiebreaker 11-9.

"At the end of the tiebreak, it came down to a couple of points that I had to get," said Roling, who shook hands and then shared a hug with Ward at the conclusion of their match before being greeted by her coaches and teammates.

"There was relief," then I was also really happy," Roling added. "There were a lot of emotions all at once."

Roling's teammates did their part to make sure she could play her match to completion.

Margaux Browning won Helias' first singles match 6-0, 6-3 at No. 6 against Annellee Sharp, while Kate Rodemann claimed a 6-0, 6-3 victory at No. 5 against Sydney Mitchell, which ended the dual at 3.

"That's what carried us on," Maassen said. "Otherwise, who knows where we would have been? That gave us a little positive push."

Josie Meyrstick accounted for Helias' next singles win at No. 3. She won the first set 7-6, taking the final five points of the tiebreaker for a 7-4 victory.

Meyrstick then won the final three games of the second set against Franmie Hess to finish off a sweep with a 7-5 win, tying the dual again at 4.

"Every girl on this team added something today," Maassen said. "That's what you want when you get to this point. It was definitely a team win, that was very exciting."

St. Pius X won the No. 1 and No. 4 singles matches. Kierra Dunn — the District 8 singles champion — claimed a 6-4, 6-1 victory against Helias' Josie Francka, while Avery Smith won a 10-4 match tiebreaker against Emily Roling. Roling won the first set 6-4, then Smith won the second set 6-3 to force the tiebreaker.

Helias' win in doubles came in the No. 3 match, as Rodemann and Browning won 8-3 against Smith and Sharp.

Winning for St. Pius X were Dunn and Hess, who were 8-6 winners against Francka and Meyrstick at No. 1, and Ward and Mitchell, who were 8-3 winners against Allison Roling and Emily Roling at No. 2.

St. Pius X, the District 8 team champion, ended the team portion of its season with a 14-2 dual record.

A trio of Lady Crusaders — Francka, Meyrstick and Allison Roling — were guaranteed to have practice today. All three are singles and doubles state qualifiers in this weekend's Class 2 individual state tournament.

With Monday's win, now today is going to be a full team practice for the Lady Crusaders.

"They're all coming to practice, that's so awesome," Maassen said. "I'm very pleased for these girls."

Crusaders will end the regular season Thursday with a home game against Lift for Life (5-3), ranked No. 3 in Class 3.

Platte County in Class 5 and Keany in Class 4 are unanimous No. 1 selections in their respective classes. Seneca in Class 3 and Thrayer in Class 1 received eight of the nine first-place votes in their classes.

Three teams received first-place votes in Class 6 — No. 1, C.B.C., No. 2, Blue Springs South and No. 3, Nixa.

Tennis: Belle in contention for Class 1 trophy

"I could feel it before it was happening," Roling admitted. Ward held an 8-5 lead in the tiebreaker...

"It's all mental," she said. "You've got to keep your head in it."

Roling won each of the next four points, taking a 9-8 lead for match point.

Ward won the next point to tie it at 9, then Roling took the following point for her second match point.

"At the end of the tiebreak, it came down to a couple of points that I had to get," said Roling...

"There was relief, then I was also really happy," Roling added. "There were a lot of emotions all at once."

Margaux Browning won Helias' first singles match 6-0, 6-3 at No. 6 against Annalie Sharp...

"That's what carried us on," Maassen said. "Otherwise, who knows where we would have been? That gave us a little positive push."

Kristy Meystrik accounted for Helias' next singles win at No. 3. She won the first set 7-6, taking the final five points of the set tiebreaker for a 7-4 victory.

"Every girl on my team added something today," Maassen said. "That's what you want when you get to this point. It was definitely a team win, that was very exciting."

St. Pius X won the No. 1 and No. 4 singles matches. Kierra Dunn — the District 8 singles champion — claimed a 6-4, 6-1 victory against Helias' Josie Francka...

Helias' win in doubles came in the No. 3 match, as Rodezmann and Browning won 8-3 against Smith and Sharp.

Winning for St. Pius X were Dunn and Hess, who were 8-6 winners against Francka and Meystrik at No. 1, and Ward and Mitchell, who were 8-3 winners against Allison Roling and Emily Roling at No. 2.

St. Pius X, the District 8 team champion, ends the team portion of its season with a 14-2 dual record.

With Monday's win, now today is going to be a full team practice for the Lady Crusaders.

"They're all coming to practice, that's so awesome," Maassen said. "I'm very pleased for these girls."

Crusaders will end the regular season Thursday with a home game against Lift for Life (5-3), ranked No. 3 in Class 3.

Platte County in Class 5 and Kearney in Class 4 are unanimous No. 1 selections in their respective classes. Seneca in Class 3 and Thayer in Class 1 received eight of the nine first-place votes in their classes.

Three teams received first-place votes in Class 6 — No. 1, C.B.C., No. 2, Blue Springs South and No. 3, Nixa.

State law requires government entities at all levels, from water districts to city councils and school boards, to place notices of many of their activities in a legal newspaper. This is a legal newspaper. I subscribe to it, and I read it.

I read legal notices to find out when those people who meet, what rules and laws they're talking about and who can offer me two cents worth.

Would a similar notice posted somewhere on the internet alert me to what's going on around here?

The answer to that is obvious. No, it would not.

and Ward.
"You do feel the pressure," Maassen said. "You're not used to having these kind of eyeballs during dual matches. Yes, you have parents there, but there were a lot of people here today. It's just a whole different ballgame."

"I could feel it before it was happening," Roling admitted.
Ward held an 8-5 lead in the tiebreaker, taking over the serve with just two points away from a win. And there wasn't much time for Roling to regroup and take a beat.
"It's all mental," she said. "You've got to keep your head in it."

Rolling won each of the next four points, taking a 9-8 lead for match point.
Ward won the tie to tie it at 9, then Roling took the following point for her second match point. Taking over the serve, Roling won the next point on an unforced error to win the tiebreaker 11-9.
"At the end of the tiebreaker, it came down to a couple of points that I had to get," said Roling, who shook hands and then shared a hug with Ward at the conclusion of their match before being greeted by her coaches and teammates.
"There was relief, then I was also really happy," Roling said. "There were a lot of emotions all at once."

Roling's teammates did their part to make sure she could play her match to completion.
Margaux Browning won Helias' first singles match 6-0, 6-3 at No. 6 against Annelise Sharp, then Kate Rodemann claimed a 6-0, 6-3 victory at No. 5 against Sydney Mitchell, which ended the dual at 3.
"That's what carried us up," Maassen said. "Otherwise, who knows where we would have been? That gave us a little positive push."

Josie Meyrick accounted for Helias' net singles win at No. 3. She won the first set 7-6, taking the final five points of the set tiebreaker for a 7-4 victory.
Meyrick then won the final three games of the second set against Franmie Hess to finish off a sweep with a 7-5 win, tying the dual again at 4.
"Every girl on this team added something today," Maassen said. "That's what you want when you get to this point. It was definitely a team win, that was very exciting."

St. Pius X won the No. 1 and No. 2 singles matches. Kierra Dunn — the District 8 singles champion — claimed a 6-4, 6-1 victory against Helias' Josie Franck, while Avery Smith won a 10-4 match tiebreaker against Emily Roling. Roling won the first set 6-4, then Smith won the second set 6-3 to force the tiebreaker.
Helias' win in doubles came in the No. 3 match, as Rodemann and Browning won 8-3 against Smith and Sharp.

Winning for St. Pius X were Dunn and Hess, who were 8-6 winners against Francka and Meyrick at No. 1, and Ward and Mitchell, who were 8-3 winners against Allison Roling and Emily Roling at No. 2.
St. Pius X, the District 8 team champion, ends the team portion of its season with a 14-2 dual record.
A trio of Lady Crusaders — Francka, Meyrick and Allison Roling — were guaranteed to have practice today. All three are singles and doubles state qualifiers in this weekend's Class 2 individual state tournament.

With Monday's win, now today is going to be a full team practice for the Lady Crusaders.
"They're all coming to practice, that's so awesome," Maassen said. "I'm very pleased for these girls."

Crusaders will end the regular season Thursday with a home game against Life for Life (5-3), ranked No. 3 in Class 3.
Platte County in Class 5 and Kearney in Class 4 are unanimous picks for the state title. The Helias Crusaders received seven points and are just outside the top 10 in Class 6.
Helias (8-0) wrapped up the Central Missouri Activities Conference title last Friday night with a 4-7 victory against Smith-Cotton in Sedalia. The Public Notices in this newspaper help me participate in my community.

State law requires government entities at all levels, from water districts to city councils and school boards, to place notices of many of their activities in a legal newspaper. This is a legal newspaper. I subscribe to it, and I read it.
I read legal notices to find out when those people will meet, what rules and laws they're talking about and when I can offer my two cents worth.
Would a similar notice posted somewhere on the internet alert me to what's going on around here?
The answer to that is obvious. No, it would not.

and Ward.
"You do feel the pressure," Maassen said. "You're not used to having these kind of eyeballs during dual matches. Yes, you have parents there, but there were a lot of people here today. It's just a whole different ballgame."
"I could feel it before it was happening," Roling admitted.
Ward held an 8-5 lead in the tiebreaker, taking over the serve with just two points away from a win. And there wasn't much time for Roling to regroup and take a beat.
"It's all mental," she said. "You've got to keep your head in it."
Roling won each of the next four points, taking a 9-8 lead for match point.
Ward won the next point to tie it at 9, then Roling took the following point for her second match point. Taking over the serve, Roling won the next point on an unforced error to win the tiebreaker 10-9.
"At the end of the tiebreak, it came down to a couple of points that I had to get," said Roling, who shook hands and then shared a hug with Ward at the conclusion of their match before being greeted by her coaches and teammates.
"There was relief, then I was also really happy," Roling added. "There were a lot of emotions all at once."
Roling's teammates did their part to make sure she could play match to completion.
Margaux Browning won Helias' first singles match 6-0, 6-1 at No. 6 against Annelise Sharp, then Kate Rode-man claimed a 6-0, 6-3 victory at No. 5 against Sydney Mitchell, which evened the dual at 3.
"That's what carried us on," Maassen said. "Otherwise, who knows where we would have been? That gave us a little positive push."
Josie Meystrik accounted for Helias' next singles win at No. 3. She won the first set 7-5, taking the final five points of the set tiebreaker for a 7-4 victory.
Meystrik then won the final three games of the second set against Frannee Hess to finish off a sweep with a 7-5 win, tying the dual again at 4.
"Every girl on this team added something today," Maassen said. "That's what you want when you get to this point. It was definitely a team win, that was very exciting."
St. Pius X won the No. 1 and No. 4 singles matches. Kierra Dunn — the District 8 singles champion — claimed a 6-4, 6-1 victory against Helias' Josie Francka, while Avery Smith won a 10-3 match tiebreaker against Emily Roling. Roling won the first set 6-4, then Smith won the second set 6-3 to force the tiebreaker.
Helias' win in doubles came in the No. 3 match, as Rode-man and Browning won 8-3 against Dunn and Sharp.
Winning for St. Pius X were Dunn and Hess, who were 8-6 winners against Francka and Meystrik at No. 1, and Ward and Mitchell, who were 8-3 winners against Allison Roling and Emily Roling at No. 2.
St. Pius X, the District 8 team champion, ends the team portion of its season with a 14-2 dual record.
A trio of Lady Crusaders — Francka, Meystrik and Allison Roling — were guaranteed to have practice today. All three are singles and doubles state qualifiers in this weekend's Class 2 individual state tournament.

With Monday's win, now today is going to be a full team practice for the Lady Crusaders. "They're all coming to practice, that's so awesome," Maassen said. "I'm very pleased for these girls."
Crusaders will end the regular season Thursday with a home game against Lift for Life (5-3), ranked No. 3 in Class 3.
Kearney in Class 4 are unanimous No. 1 selections in their respective classes. Seneca in Class 3 and Thayer in Class 1 received eight of the nine first-place votes in their classes.
Three teams received three first-place votes in Class 6 — No. 1 C.B.C., No. 2 Blue Springs South and No. 3 Nixa.

County of Jasper

On this 21st day of October in the year 2025, before me, Daniel Kuhns, a Notary Public in and for said state, personally appeared Kim Green, Accounting Clerk of The Joplin Globe, personally known to me to be the person who executed the within Affidavit of Publication in behalf of said corporation and acknowledged to me that he or she executed the same for the purposes therein stated. In witness thereof, I hereunto set my hand and official seal.

[LS]

Daniel Kuhns
Notary Public

This notarization certificate displays my official seal and signature to prove I witnessed Kim Green's acknowledgment that the attached Affidavit of Publication was signed for its intended purpose. I did not personally witness the signing or swearing which is part of the reason I do not sign on the attached document where it says "subscribed and sworn to before me". The rest of the reason is that statement alone is insufficient form for a notarization certificate, lacking several key elements which a notarization certificate must include according to the Missouri Secretary of State's Notary Public Handbook section 486.750.
