In 2nd RCR start Busch cruises to Cup win

Kelly Crandall
RACER magazine | USA TODAY Network

Kyle Busch is off to a big start in his career at Richard Childress Racing with a win Sunday at Auto Club Speedway. Busch came on strong in the final stage of the Pala Casino 400. The two-time NASCAR Cup Series champion hunted down Ross Chastain with 34 laps to go and took the lead off Turn 2 before both drives dove to pit road for the final round of pit stops. Busch's No. 8 team kept him in the lead, and he drove away from Chastain in the final stint, cycling back to the top spot with 21 laps to go, driving around Michael McDowell, who was on a different pit strategy. "I need some 3CHI for my hands; I death-gripped that wheel throughout the second half of that race. But we held on. We got it today."

Busch

Chevrolet, and be able to race this Lucas Oil Camaro today and be able to put it up front like that.

"The guys did a great job. Randall (Burnett, crew chief), everybody that has worked so hard during the offseason. We've done a lot of sim stuff. We've done a lot of testing in general, just trying to get up to speed. Man, there is nothing more rewarding than being able to go to Victory Lane. Chase Elliott finished second after getting around Chastain in the closing laps. Chastain swept the first two stages and led a race-high 91 laps before finishing third. Daniel Suarez finished fourth and Kevin Harvick finished fifth. Harvick made his 750th consecutive start Sunday. Denny Hamlin finished sixth and Brad Keselowski finished seventh. Keselowski overcame a spin on lap 42 after contact with Corey LaJoie and had to go through the grass to avoid a multiple-car crash on a lap 86 restart. Alex Bowman finished eighth, Dillon ninth and Joey Logano 10th. There were 28 lead changes among 13 drivers in the final race of the 2-mile oval configuration of Auto Club. There were eight cautions. With Sunday's win, Busch has earned at least one victory in 19 consecutive seasons, breaking a tie with Richard Petty (18) for most all-time. Busch has won for the three organizations he's driven for the Cup Series: Hendrick Motorsports, Joe Gibbs Racing and Richard Childress Racing. "I think it ranks high just because it (speaks) to the fact of, 'I can do it,'"

Busch said. "I never doubted myself, but sometimes you do. You get down, and you wonder what's going on and what's happening, and you put yourself in a different situation and you're able to come out here and reward your guys. It's not about me always winning, but it's always the guys."

"I've been with a lot of great people who have given me a lot of great opportunities in my career, so it's awesome to be able to reward them. We got to enjoy it and hopefully there's many more to come."

"We got guys out there who are not competing, not making plays," Buckley said. "So, we got to get people in there who want to play, who want to compete and make plays."

Buckley's Guardians team features two former NFL first-round draft picks (quarterback Paxton Lynch and safety Matt Elam) and a second-round NFL pick (wide receiver Cody Latimer).

Turnover-prone Ben DiNucci

Former Dallas Cowboys quarterback Ben DiNucci made one NFL start, a 23-9 loss to the Philadelphia Eagles on Nov. 1, 2020. In that game, he lost two fumbles. His turnover trend has continued into his XFL gig with the Sea Dragons. In Week 1, DiNucci fumbled the ball on a 2nd-and-goal situation with 19 seconds remaining and the Defenders won the game 22-18. That wasn't the only turnover for DiNucci against D.C. He also threw two interceptions, including a pick-six. Against the BattleHawks on Thursday and facing a 3rd-and-1 at the opponent's 18-yard line, DiNucci fumbled the ball on what appeared to be an attempted quarterback sneak. The turnover spoiled a potential opportunity to score points. DiNucci did put his team in a position to win the game, throwing a fourth-down touchdown pass to Jordan Veasy with under a minute and a half to play. The moment was spoiled when Donny Hageman made the winning field goal for St. Louis in the final seconds.

XFL WEEK 2 WINNERS AND LOSERS

Wade Phillips gets territorial triumph

Richard Morin and Jim Reineking
USA TODAY

After Week 2 of the XFL season, three teams remain undefeated. Two of those teams – the St. Louis Battlehawks and San Antonio Brahmas – will face off this coming weekend. But let's break down Week 2 before we get ahead of ourselves. The unbeaten BattleHawks pulled off a wild, fourth-quarter rally en route to a dramatic win. Meanwhile, the Houston Roughnecks prevailed in a territorial battle against the Arlington Renegades. Elsewhere, the Brahmas took care of the Orlando Guardians, while the Vegas Vipers experienced a slip-up. Winners and losers from Week 2.

WINNERS

The cardiac kids from St. Louis

BattleHawks games are turning into must-see TV. Last week, the BattleHawks pulled off a frenzied late fourth-quarter rally by scoring 15 points in the final minute and a half of an 18-15 win over the Brahmas. That comeback was made possible by the XFL giving teams the option to go for three-point conversions after TDs. On Thursday, the BattleHawks won another thriller, a 20-18 victory over the Seattle Sea Dragons at Lumen Field. Quarterback AJ McCarron, who led Alabama to back-to-back college football national championships, deftly put his team into position for the winning field goal. A 9-yard pass to Austin Proehl – son of former NFL receiver Ricky Proehl (who happens to be the BattleHawks receivers coach) – set up Donny Hageman for a 44-yard game-winning field goal as time expired. McCarron might have found his happy place in the XFL. "Ever since I came out of college, I've been counted out a little bit," McCarron said in a postgame interview with ESPN. "It's just fun to come out here and play. I miss playing. Not always just being a backup, and that's a great living. It really is, and I absolutely love it. I love playing. This is special and I can't thank the XFL enough. It's been awesome."

Territorial triumph

Former NFL coach Wade Phillips and the Roughnecks emerged victorious from an intra-state tussle with the Renegades on Sunday in Texas. The game featured a healthy amount of trash talk and bragging rights stakes – as evidenced by the live mics on the field – but Houston kept its head down in the second half to keep Arlington in the rearview mirror. After an Arlington end-zone interception was reversed due to illegal contact, Houston took advantage of the second chance and hit paydirt to build a nine-point lead. The Renegades' last-ditch effort fell short, giving the Roughnecks a 23-14 win and moving them to 2-0. Both teams got familiar with each other during the preseason due to the relatively close proximity of the cities, and it feels as though the bad blood isn't going away soon.

The unbeaten Defenders

The DC Defenders improved to 2-0 with an 18-6 road comeback win against the Vipers. Quarterbacks Jordan Ta'amu and D'Eriq King, along with running backs Abram Smith and Ryquell Armstead, ran for a combined 231 yards and two touchdowns on 42 carries. Smith turned in an individual effort of 69 yards on 11 carries. The Defenders pitched a second-half shutout of the Vipers and scored all 18 of their points after the break. Playing through wet and slippery conditions, the Defenders took advantage of Vegas' missed opportunities and did just enough to move to the top of the North division standings. The Defenders match up against the BattleHawks (2-0) in a showdown of unbeaten squads on Sunday (1 p.m. ET on FX).

A Winning(ham) play

The Central Arkansas product and former Jacksonville Jaguars wide receiver had a prolific sequence in the first half of Sunday's game between the Renegades and Roughnecks. Winingham forced a fumble on special teams and caught a touchdown pass on the subsequent possession, giving the Renegades a huge push of momentum into the half. The 24-year-old was an undrafted signing by the Jaguars prior to the 2022 season but was waived in August. Winingham had 53 receptions for 840 yards and five touchdowns in his final nine games at Central Arkansas last season, and he's making a big impact on Arlington in the XFL season.

Losers

Woeful Guardians

The Renegades have endured two blowout losses, and Orlando head coach Terrell Buckley was not having it. During Sunday's 30-12 defeat against the Brahmas, Buckley was visibly frustrated with his team's play (or lack thereof) throughout the contest. Much of it was caught on his hot mic. During an in-game interview with ESPN, Buckley further berated his players.

Bad slips in Las Vegas

En route to a second loss in two weeks, the Vipers were victimized by poor playing conditions on their home field in Las Vegas. Rainy weather produced a slippery surface at Cashman Field that felled Vipers kicker Bailey Griffin, who lost his footing on a 23-yard field-goal attempt. Las Vegas is one of the driest major cities in the country, so it seems unlikely the Vipers will be regularly contending with a wet field. Still, it didn't help their chances on Saturday. Vegas went on to lose 18-6, falling to 0-2.
